

HOW I WANT TO WORK

INSTRUCTIONS

- Using the table on the second sheet, circle all that matters to you when you think about an ideal working environment that would help you flourish
- Now, from everything that you have circled, narrow down your choices to a maximum of 5
- Rank them below in order of highest to lowest priority

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

REFLECTION

- What did you learn and did anything surprise you?
- What changes do you need to make?
- What changes are you willing to make?
- What are you going to do as a result of this exercise? Be as specific as you can

HOW I WANT TO WORK

Working outdoors	Work that is consistent and reliable
Working indoors	Work that I care about
Work from home	Work that I don't have to care about
Intellectual work	Commission-based work
Work that makes me famous	Salaried work
Work where I can build a good reputation	Hourly-paid work
Manual work	Work where I can be trained to learn more
9-5 hours	Work requiring qualifications
Shift work	Work that requires my particular experience
Regular tasks and activities each day	Creative work
Variation of tasks, no two days are the same	An organisation that is doing something I believe in strongly
Lots of input from managers	An organisation where I can make a lot of money
I am left to manage my own workload	The opportunity to travel internationally
Lots of responsibility	The opportunity to travel locally or nationally
Minimal responsibility	Work where my time is always accounted for
Clearly defined tasks	Work where I have the freedom to choose when I am active and inactive
Abstract briefs where I have freedom to give my own input	Work from home
Lots of interaction with other people	Work in an office
Some interaction with other people	Work in a workshop
Minimal interaction with other people	Work in a factory
Managing projects	Work in a shop
Managing people	Teaching others to learn something new
Work I feel passionate about	Working with children
Work that pays the bills so I can focus on other aspects of my life	Working with adults
Work that is innovative	Working with animals
Work that contributes to a social cause	Work where I help others
Work where I feel needed	Work where I feel I can make a difference
Work where I can make something with my own hands	A company where I can bring my own ideas to life
Work where I am free to make decisions	Work where I entertain others